Dear Sir, Wmbsury 25. March 1789.

By some Accident I have mislaid the Account which Mr. A. Randolph delivered me agt Mr. J. R.'s Estate &c. so that I cannot ascertain whether the Amount of his order is correct or not. Until I can lay my hand on the Account I can not accept the order fully - I find on my Books £6. 2. 6. charged agt his father & perhaps may have some other discount which I can not exactly ascertain until my return - but notwithstanding this difficulty I will accept it for £15. - leaving the Balance open till my return.

I beg leave to trouble you with the enclosed Interest Warrants for £162. 9. the whole, or any part of which you will be pleased to pay to Mr. John Woodson should he stand in need of them for taxes for my ward's Estates - & in that case, will thank you to take his receipt for the Amount paid him - the remainder if any to wait my return.

I gave Mr. Woodson a letter to you requesting your payment of any sum he might require not over £100.

I also drew on you in favor of Gordon Westmore & Maithland from Petersburg for £20. which I dare say they have applied for.

As All fools day is pretty near, I hope you will review my Quarters salary that will then become due.

I saw our friend Ben. Harrison in my way down - He is as happy as all the goods of life can make a mortal.
Long may he enjoy them!

I am Dear Sir,

Your very obed. Serv<sup>t</sup>

Wm Tucker

Be pleased to acknowledge this Letter.
